

I travel on the road quite a lot and use XM as my primary listening and like all the benefits and channels that are offered, especially the weather channel. I would even like more channels made available to me.